

Grade 1

Common Core Learning Standards for English Language Arts and Literacy

Reading Standards for Informational Text

Key Ideas and Details

1. Ask and answer questions about key details in a text.
2. Identify the main topic and retell key details of a text.
3. Describe the connection between two individuals, events, ideas, or pieces of information in a text.

Craft and Structure

4. Ask and answer questions to help determine or clarify the meanings of words and phrases in a text.
5. Know and use various text features (e.g., headings, tables of contents, glossaries, electronic menus, icons) to locate key facts or information in a text.
6. Distinguish between information provided by pictures or other illustrations and information provided by the words in a text.

Integration of Knowledge and Ideas

7. Use the illustrations and details in a text to describe its key ideas.
8. Identify the reasons an author gives to support points in a text.
9. Identify basic similarities in and differences between two texts on the same topic (e.g., in illustrations, descriptions, or procedures).

Range of Reading and Level of Text Complexity

10. With prompting and support, read informational texts that are appropriately complex for grade 1.

Writing Standards

Text Types and Purposes

1. Write opinion pieces in which they introduce the topic or name the book that they are writing about, state an opinion, supply a reason for the opinion, and provide some sense of closure.
2. Write informative/explanatory texts in which they name a topic, supply some facts about the topic, and provide some sense of closure.
3. Write narratives in which they recount two or more appropriately sequenced events, include some details regarding what happened, use temporal words to signal event order, and provide some sense of closure.

Production and Distribution of Writing

4. (Begins in grade 3)
5. With guidance and support from adults, focus on a topic, respond to questions and suggestions from peers, and add details to strengthen writing as needed.
6. With guidance and support from adults, use a variety of digital tools to produce and publish writing, including in collaboration with peers.

Research to Build and Present Knowledge

7. Participate in shared research and writing projects (e.g., explore a number of “how-to” books on a given topic and use them to write a sequence of instructions).
8. With guidance and support from adults, recall information from experiences or gather information from provided sources to answer a question.

Speaking and Listening Standards

Comprehension and Collaboration

1. Participate in collaborative conversations about grade 1 topics and texts with peers, diverse partners, and adults in small and larger groups.
 - a. Follow agreed-upon rules for discussions (e.g., listening to others with care, speaking one at a time about the topics and texts under discussion).
 - b. Build on others' talk in conversations by responding to the comments of others through multiple exchanges.
 - c. Ask questions to clear up any confusion about the topics and texts under discussion.
 - d. Seek to understand and communicate with individuals from different cultural backgrounds.
2. Ask and answer questions about key details in a text read aloud or information presented orally or through other media.
3. Ask and answer questions about what a speaker says in order to gather additional information or clarify something that is not understood.

Presentation of Knowledge and Ideas

4. Describe people, places, things, and events, using relevant details and expressing ideas and feelings clearly.
5. Add drawings or other visual displays to descriptions, when appropriate, to clarify ideas, thoughts, and feelings.
6. Produce complete sentences, when appropriate to the task and the situation.

Grade 1: Social Studies Practices

A. Gathering, Interpreting, and Using Evidence

1. Develop questions about his/her family.
2. Recognize different forms of evidence used to make meaning in social studies (including sources such as art and photographs, artifacts, oral histories, maps, and graphs).
3. Identify the creator and/or author of different forms of evidence.
4. Identify opinions of others.
5. Create an understanding of the past by using primary and secondary sources.

B. Chronological Reasoning and Causation

Grade 1: My Family and Other Families, Now and Long Ago

“My Family and Other Families, Now and Long Ago” is organized around the same five units of study that organize kindergarten Social Studies—Individual Development and Cultural Identity; Civic Ideals and Practices; Geography, Humans, and the Environment; Time, Continuity, and Change; and Economic Systems. These units represent five of the unifying themes of social studies, and may be presented in any order.

Students examine families and develop an awareness of cultural diversity within the American culture. Responsible citizenship is introduced, as well as the role of authority in making rules and laws. The students will increase their geography skills through the use of maps and directions. Family history provides the basis for examining sources of information and organizing that information. Economic terminology and principles are introduced in the context of family resources, as well as in making economic decisions.

Individual Development and Cultural Identity

1.1 Language, beliefs, customs, and traditions help shape the identity and culture of a family and a community.

1.1a Families are a basic unit of all societies, and different people define family differently.

- Students will listen to stories about different families and will identify characteristics that are the same and different.

1.1b People and families of diverse racial, religious, national, and ethnic groups share their beliefs, customs, and traditions, which creates a multicultural community.

- Students will identify traditions that are associated with their families, and tell why the tradition is important.

1.1c Awareness of America’s rich diversity fosters intercultural understanding.

- Students will compare the cultural similarities and differences between various ethnic and cultural groups found in New York State.

1.2 There are significant individuals, historical events, and symbols that are important to American cultural identity.

1.2a The study of historical events, historical figures, and folklore enables Americans with diverse cultural backgrounds to feel connected to a common national heritage.

- Students will listen to stories about historical events, folklore, and popular historical figures and identify the significance of the event or person.
- Students will explain when and why celebrate national holidays such as Labor Day, Constitution Day, Columbus Day, Thanksgiving, Martin Luther King Jr. Day, Presidents’ Day, Law Day, and Independence Day are celebrated.

1.2b The Pledge of Allegiance and patriotic songs play an important role in understanding and examining the nation’s history, values, and beliefs.

- Students will be able to recite the Pledge of Allegiance, to begin to understand its purpose and its general meaning, and to sing patriotic songs such as America the Beautiful, America (“My Country 'Tis of Thee”), and The Star Spangled Banner and begin to understand the general meaning of the lyrics.

Civic Ideals and Practices

1.3 A citizen is a member of a community or group. Students are citizens of their local and global communities.

1.3a An engaged and active citizen participates in the activities of the group or community and makes positive contributions.

- Students will participate in group activities and contribute to the work of the group.

1.3b Traits of a responsible citizen include respecting others^{*}, behaving honestly, helping others, obeying rules and laws, being informed, and sharing needed resources.

- Students will explain the traits of a responsible citizen and model actions of responsible citizens.

1.3c As global citizens, we are connected to people and cultures beyond our own community and nation, and we have a shared responsibility to protect and respect our world.

- Students will discuss ways that they can protect and respect our world and its people.

1.4 People create governments in order to create peace and establish order. Laws are created to protect the rights and define the responsibilities of individuals and groups.

1.4a Rules and laws are developed to protect people's rights and for the safety and welfare of the community.

- Students will discuss the difference between rules and laws, and determine why school rules were developed and what the consequences are of not following the rules.

1.4b Governments exist at the local, state, and national levels to represent the needs of the people, create and enforce laws, and help resolve conflicts.

- Students will begin to understand that there are local, state, and national levels of government and will identify some actions that the government takes.

1.4c Children can participate in problem solving, decision making, and conflict resolution within their home, school, and community.

- Students will be given opportunities to solve problems, make decisions, and resolve conflicts.

Geography, Humans, and the Environment

1.5 The location and place of physical features and man-made structures can be described and interpreted by using symbols and geographic vocabulary.

1.5a Maps and map tools, such as legends and cardinal directions, can help us navigate from one place to the next, provide directions, or trace important routes.

- Students will use cardinal directions within the classroom to describe the locations of objects (e.g., desks, bookcases) and create a map of the classroom by using symbols to represent objects.

1.5b Maps are used to locate important places in the community, state, and nation, such as capitals, monuments, hospitals, museums, schools, and cultural centers.

* According to the Dignity for All Students Act, "others" includes, but is not limited to, people of different races, weights, national origins, ethnic groups, religions, religious practices, mental or physical abilities, sexual orientations, gender identity, and sexes.

- Students will use a map of the community and provide directions to another student on how to get from the school to another place identified on the map.

1.5c Symbols are used to represent physical features and man-made structures on maps and globes.

- Students will closely read maps making use of the legends to understand symbols and what they represent.

1.6 People and communities depend on and modify their physical environment in order to meet basic needs.

1.6a People and communities depend on the physical environment for natural resources.

- Students will identify natural resources required to meet basic needs.

1.6b Roads, dams, bridges, farms, parks, and dwellings are all examples of how people modify the physical environment to meet needs and wants.

- Students will identify how the physical environment of their community has been modified to meet needs and wants.

1.6c People interact with their physical environment in ways that may have a positive or a negative effect.

- Students will identify positive and negative effects that human interaction can have on the physical environment.

Time, Continuity, and Change

1.7 Families have a past and change over time. There are different types of documents that relate family histories. (NOTE: Teachers will use their professional judgment and demonstrate sensitivity regarding the varied family structures of their students and availability of information.)

1.7a Personal and family history is a source of information for individuals about the people and places around them.

- Students will create personal time lines of their life, school year, and family events with the help of family members. Students will demonstrate an understanding of sequence and chronology and share their time lines with each other.

1.7b Families change over time, and family growth and change can be documented and recorded.

- Students will examine the changes in their family over time and how the family growth and change could be documented and recorded.

1.7c Families of long ago have similarities and differences with families today.

- Students will examine families of the past and compare them with their family. They will identify characteristics that have been passed on through the generations.

1.7d Sequence and chronology can be identified in terms of days, weeks, months, years, and seasons when describing family events and histories.

- Students will use sequence and chronological terms when describing family events.

1.8 Historical sources reveal information about how life in the past differs from the present.

1.8a Various historical sources exist to inform people about life in the past, including artifacts, letters, maps, photographs, and newspapers.

- Students will be exposed to various historical sources, including artifacts, letters, maps, photographs, and newspapers.

1.8b Oral histories, biographies, and family time lines relate family histories.

- Students will interview family members to learn about their family histories. Students will develop a family time line as an extension of their personal time line.
- Students will describe the main characters and qualities after listening to biographies and legends.

Economic Systems

1.9 People have many economic wants and needs, but limited resources with which to obtain them.

1.9a Scarcity means that people's wants exceed their limited resources.

- Students will provide examples of scarcity by identifying wants that exceed resources.

1.9b Families and communities must make choices due to unlimited needs and wants, and scarce resources; these choices involve costs.

- Students will examine choices that families make due to scarcity, and identify costs associated with these choices.

1.9c People use tools, technologies, and other resources to meet their needs and wants.

- Students will examine how tools, technology, and other resources can be used to meet needs and wants.

1.10 People make economic choices as producers and consumers of goods and services.

1.10a Goods are consumable, tangible products; services are actions performed by a person or group of people with a certain skill.

- Students will identify examples of goods and services.

1.10b A producer makes goods or provides a service, while a consumer uses or benefits from the goods or services.

- Students will identify examples of a producer and a consumer.

1.10c People and families work to earn money to purchase goods and services that they need or want.

- Students will examine how earning money through work is related to the purchase of goods and services.

1.10d People make decisions about how to spend and save the money that they earn.

- Students will examine decisions that people make about spending and saving money.
