Write On! Choice Board

Directions: Choose 2 assignments each week, and write 1-2 paragraphs in your notebook. Incorporate as many weekly vocabulary words as you can, and underline each one that you use.

Narrative	Expository	Persuasive	Reading	Fiction
SMILES Write a story about a time that was fun, funny, or made you happy.	RELATIONSHIPS Choose a friend, family member, pet, or someone else in your life, and explain what your relationship is like with that person.	RULES Choose a rule that you have to follow. Decide whether you think it is a good rule or bad rule, and convince the reader to agree with you.	PROBLEM Write about a problem that a character in your book is facing. How do you think they should solve it? Would you solve it the same way?	MYSTERY Write a short mystery story/scene.
FROWNS Write a story about a time that made you sad, angry or disappointed.	TECHNOLOGY Choose a type of technology, or technological item, and explain the positives and negatives of it.	POLITICAL ISSUE Choose a current political or past political issue, (possibly one that we study in social studies), and convince the reader to agree with your thoughts on which side of the issue is the right one.	CHARACTER TRAITS Choose a character in your book. Is this character someone that you would want to be friends with? Why or why not.	SCIENCE FICTION Write a short science fiction story/scene.
FORGIVENESS Write a story about a time that you forgave somebody, or a time that you were forgiven.	CELEBRITY Choose a sports player, singer, writer, actor, or any other celebrity. Explain why this person is so famous.	ENVIRONMENTAL ISSUE Choose a current or past environmental issue, (possibly one that we study in social studies), and convince the reader to agree with your thoughts on which side of the issue is the right one.	LESSONS What lessons are you learning from the book that you are reading? Explain what lesson you learned, and how you learned it from the book.	FANTASY Write a short fantasy story/scene
BRAVERY Write a story about a time that you felt like a hero, or did something brave.	IDEAS Choose an idea that you have, and explain why you think it is a good idea, and what positive changes would come from that idea.	DISAGREEMENT Summarize a disagreement that you had with someone, and convince the reader that you were right.	NON FICTION Read a news article, or an article about a person or event. What was the author's perspective on this topic, and what is the central idea of the article?	AVENTURE Write a short adventure story/scene.
Wildcard Write a story about any time or event in your life, or in the life of someone else.	Wildcard Write about anything that you would like to describe or explain.	Wildcard Write to persuade the reader about any topic that you would like.	Wild Card Write whatever you would like about a book that you are reading, or an article that you read.	Wildcard Write a short fiction story/scene about any topic that you would like.